Summary

The Sulu State College, in its 40 years of service, upholds its aspirations by molding stalwarts, cultivating excellence, and signifying breakthroughs. The volatile effects of the pandemic brought significant breakthroughs to the college despite challenges and unwanted circumstances. This prompted the college to thrive amidst the uncertainties and managed to position itself on the surface of excellence and created a sphere of growth and development.

This year, we want to highlight significant breakthroughs in both academic and administrative services as an academic institution. The college provided the students, faculty, staff, and other stakeholders the opportunities they need to be at the best of themselves for their families and the community. This is a collection of individual and collective accomplishments of leaders and public servants of tomorrow.

The unparalleled academic support, heartfelt advocacies, and invaluable resources have changed the landscape of the college and created positive impacts in the community. The Sugpat Kasilasa was successfully implemented in celebration of our 40th Founding Anniversary to pave the way for our thanksgiving and shared purpose of giving back to the community. We have committed ourselves to working beyond what is expected of us and this would not be possible without the collective efforts of every Stalwart in the college.

Throughout the year, Sulu State College has proved its strong passion to keep moving forward despite the unfathomable trials of the pandemic. The institution has launched many firsts during this year. These new firsts are the following; the First Philvac Detection System (PDS) in Sulu, the First Non-Teaching Personnel (NTP) Day, the First Face-to-Face Job Preparation, the First Online Channel in Sulu—Stalwart TV, the First Pinning of School of Nursing, First President's Night, First Smart Campus in BARMM, and First Inter-Nursing School Research Forum. These promising events are manifestations of the strong roots that the Sulu State College has which made it stand firm to reach its mission and goals as an academic institution.

Simultaneously with the launching of the many firsts, the Sulu State College has continued to progress in other aspects such as its infrastructure. This year, the college has inaugurated the following buildings; Nursing Laboratory, Center for Culture and Arts, Newly-Renovated School of Education, SSC Luuk Extension Building, Stalwart Library, and Multimedia Center. The institution believes that along with the progressive growth of the academe, the infrastructure must also be at its best state in order to serve the SSC community with an excellent ambiance to work with. The many rising new buildings are the living testament of the phase leading to greater heights.

Eventually, the college has also been indefatigable as it also has created more initiatives for the betterment of the institution. The SSC community has been oriented toward the Cloud-based Learning Management System. Also, this particular academe has come up with the Stalwart Academy which offered various courses such as public speaking, dancing, art, and many more which accommodate younger learners.

The abovementioned gestures are but just portions of what SSC has been doing for many years. And this does not end here because the institution has instilled within its system the mandate to keep progressing in order to serve the SSC community and the province of Sulu the best that it could offer. Thus, the SSC shall continue so that the service to the Sulu community and the world could be provided.

Prof. Charisma S. Ututalum, CESE
SUC President II

History

Background

The forerunner of the Sulu State College was the Sulu High School which was established by the Americans in 1924. This was the highest institution of learning in Sulu (Tawi-Tawi was still a part of Sulu) that serves the educational needs of the people. In 1970, the Jolo Community College was opened in response to the desire of the provincial government to make college education accessible to the youth of Sulu. It grew into a big community college with an average enrolment of 1,200 per semester. In 1974, the Sulu High School was converted to a National High School and named Dayang Hadji Piandao Memorial High School in honor of the late Pangian (Queen) of Sulu.

While Dayang Dayang Hadji Piandao Memorial High School was supported by the national government, the Jolo Community College derived its support solely from the tuition and other school fees paid by the students. Both schools were under the administration of late Mr. Mukatil U. Salih, the principal. With the passage of Batas Blg.208 in 1982, the two institutions were merged into what is now SULU STATE COLLEGE and by operation of said law, the principal was appointed as acting President until his retirement in 1989. In the same year, Dr. Norma A. Abdulla succeeded Mr. Salih, as the first female Full-pledged President of the College. During her incumbency, various changes were made such as the transfer of the college department to the main campus at the Capitol site, the construction of the Gymnasium, the Administration building, and the Computer Center and the perimeter fencing of the main campus and the nursery in Gandasuli, Patikul, Sulu. After Dr. Abdulla's retirement in 1995, Mr. Ibrahim Al-bar, Assistant Regional Director for Region IX was appointed as Officer-In-Charge in January 1996 until late May of the same year. Subsequently, Dr. Hamsali S. Jawali was appointed Second Full-pledge President to serve a six-year term. A few months after his assumption into office as President of the College. Dr. Hamsali has done a lot for the College. Among his accomplishments were the offering of the school of nursing, construction of five two-storey buildings namely: Science and Technology, High School, Business Administration, Arts and Science, a circular Student Center, Agriculture, the extension of the college library and construction of nursing building. The ground breaking of SSC lady dormitory was done during the last week of June 2001. Moreover, he initiated the establishment of the Islamic Institute and constructed a mosque. He designated additional officials to promote the efficiency and productivity of the management work force of the College. Furthermore, he was an instrumental in the acquisition of the speech laboratory, computer hardware to upgrade IT program improvement of Computer Science Center, and acquired additional vehicles for faculty and personnel use. He also renovated pre-fab building for the office of school deans and the school clinics.

Dr. Hamsali extended his presidency until 2010. Upon his exit from the college of the Sulu State College, the commission on higher education made another search for presidency of the college and conducted an election. It was Prof. Abdurasa S. Arasid, Ed. D who won the said election as president of Sulu State College.

For more than a year as College President, he continued to improve the development of the College, particularly in updating the instructional technologies of education. He initiated the acquisition of the newest technology such as robotic and other advance technologies for Computer Science and Engineering department and so far only SSC was is the first one to use this technology in the entire ARMM region. He also concentrated more on the instructional facilities which Dr. Arasid believed that Tau-sug students have also the right to use and enjoy what other colleges are using. He also accomplished more infrastructure projects, namely: The Green House at the School Agriculture; Science and Mathematics department together with the School of Graduate Studies; and covered Court at the main campus, Capitol Site.

RETURN TO SCHOOL YOUTH CAMPAIGN
 "The youth is the hope of the future" – Dr. Jose Rizal, but how can it be possible when one of the biggest problems we are facing right now is education? Many youth are no longer attending to school because of poverty. Instead of studying they are forced to work for their family. You can see anywhere around children begging for money, selling on streets, and some are involved in crimes. They are taught to do bad things in order to survive and education is being ignored. It is the right of every youth to be educated as stated in the Constitution. "Education is for all." We should give the poor children education to lead them into the right path. It is not too late to change the future of these children. Our future also relies on the hands of the children. We should not give up on them and give a chance to live a better life.
